

THE FAMEPORTANT SONG

BLANCA (Maravini) JUAN (Martínez) / 2º Bachillerato A

I'm Nicola Tesla

A well-known scientist

You might have heard about me and all my work (heard about my work)

I created a coil, Edison made me boil

And I'm way more important than you (Bis)

That's fascinating

But now look at me

I'm Paris Hilton and I like to dress in pink

I'm very pretty my Chihuahua also is

I'm more famous than what you could ever be (Bis)

I'm in the books	I have two boots
My brain is big	My hair is silk
You are a blond	You died alone
How dare youooooo
I'm very	Important Famous

I am Johann Sebastian Bach

I played the organ

In my church I used to be really important

Music wouldn't have developed without me

'Cause I created the bases of harmony (Bis)

Ok, I'm famous

I'm Justin Bieber

I have got thousands, even millions of believers

And nowadays my music's better known than yours

So you can get up and then go back to your tomb (Bis)

My music's good	My music's new
No one hates me	I have money
You use a	Really, really simple Very complicated	Harmony
I'm very	Important Famous

It doesn't matter how		Much fame you have achieved Important you have been
You're not essential to humanity You look so stupid, you wear a wig (→→)
And I don't care what you're saying because
Being	Important	Is what I was born for Famous
